

Improve Hiring Decisions

When used correctly, cognitive and personality tests can increase the chances that new employees will succeed. Since the cost of a bad hire is widely estimated to be at least one year's pay, there are huge incentives for organizations to get hiring right" (Harvard Business Review).

Psychometric profiling helps understand the likely on-the-job performance of a candidate.

Research indicates good profiles are much better at this than good interviews. Both together with good verbal reference checking will save you money and stress in the long run.

For $275 (excl GST) we can provide you a detailed profile of a candidate you are seriously considering. This includes:

- Detailed candidate report covering personal style, resilience, ability and more.
- Thirty-minute brief on the needs of the role.
- Debrief on our findings.
- Administering the full process.
